

CARBON TAX ELECTION

BRAD REDEKOPP
MEMBER OF PARLIAMENT

Saskatoon West

OCT. 2024

Pierre Poilievre and the Common Sense Conservatives

Dear Friends and Neighbours,

In the past two years, Justin Trudeau has taken Canada down a dangerous path and the consequences are alarming. Under his leadership, Canadians have faced runaway inflation with the cost of everything—from groceries to housing—skyrocketing. Families across the country are struggling to keep up, and Trudeau’s relentless carbon tax hikes are only making things worse. This tax is crushing Canadians, driving up the cost of heating homes and putting food on the table, all while doing nothing for the environment.

But it doesn’t stop there. Trudeau’s government has been plagued by scandal after scandal, from the WE Charity debacle to serious allegations of foreign interference in our democracy. His lack of transparency and accountability is eroding the trust Canadians once had in their government. Instead of working for the people, Trudeau has prioritized his globalist agenda, leaving Canadians behind and driving deep divisions within the country.

What’s truly terrifying is Trudeau’s reckless spending. He’s piled on billions in debt, saddling future generations with the fallout of his financial mismanagement. Meanwhile, his failure to address the housing crisis has left Canadians with soaring rents and mortgages. The dream of home ownership is slipping further out of reach.

National security is at risk too. Trudeau has failed to stand up to foreign interference, leaving our country vulnerable. This is no longer just bad governance—it’s a threat to Canada’s future. Canadians can’t afford another year of Justin Trudeau. We must act now before the damage becomes irreversible.

Let’s Bring It Home,

Brad Redekopp

CARBON TAX ELECTION

After 9 years of NDP-Liberals,

As summer ends and Parliament resumes its circus-like atmosphere, it becomes clear that the NDP-Liberal coalition in Ottawa is playing political games with your hard-earned money. Their carbon tax is nothing more than a political tool designed to line the pockets of bureaucrats while hurting families like yours. Despite knowing that this tax drives up the cost of groceries, gas, and home heating, they continue to push their failed policies under the guise of "helping the environment".

The reality is that this tax does nothing to help the environment—it's just another way for the NDP-Liberal government to

TAXES UP, ↑
COSTS UP, ↑
CRIME'S UP, ↑
TIME'S UP.

squeeze more money from Canadians, all while playing politics to stay in power.

The NDP and Liberals know this tax is unpopular, but they refuse to acknowledge the burden it places on families in places like Saskatoon West. Instead of listening to you, they're focused on appeasing their political allies in downtown Toronto and Ottawa.

It's time for a carbon tax election—an election where Canadians can choose between more political gamesmanship, or real leadership that will axe the tax and make life more affordable.

Only a Conservative government will bring common sense to Ottawa and end this costly ineffective tax for good.

Let's put a stop to these political games and bring home affordability for all Canadians.
